removal from the original source of impurity or desecration. For designation of degrees of impurity - The mudists used terminology borrowed from degrees of kinship. The source of impurity is called among them
"father" or producer of impurity (Ab-ga-tu-mag)
for example%r: carrion, a person possessed by leprosy (zaraat) or infectious suppuration (zabg), as well as its dress and bed - all these are sources of impurity and are called "producers of impurity."

Persons and objects that came into contact with them in Vienna, they receive a lighter degree of desecration, called derived from impurity (velyad-ga-tumag) - means "child of uncleanliness". The main difference is the productive desecration from the derivative consists in the fact that the first has the ability to communicate impurity to persons and objects, including also [household utensils, dress, etc., and the resulting impurity can be reported to impure only food substances and drinks kam, i.e. all this is made treyf and unfit for use i.

Impurity (clubs) derivative is divided into 4 stages fines: persons and objects, as well as food substances, touching the productive sewage (Abga-tu-magician), receive 1st degree desecration (Rishon le-tuma); food substances that come into contact with the latter, obtain a derivative of impurity of the 2nd degree, obtain derivative desecration of the 3rd degree (Shelishile-tumag); and, finally, food substances that touch the 8th degree, to obtain a derivative impurity of the 4th degree (Rebiy le-tumag).

From touching the corpse, in addition to the above, distinguish another occurring degree, namely: the original source of impurity (Abi-abot-ga-tumag) "forefather of impurity-“thoths”, this is how the corpse itself is often designated, as well as the human Bachelor grave. Objects and persons touched or those who are in the same tent with him are defiled neshe for 7 days, and are called producers of impurity (Abga-tumag); they convey the desecration of a one-day non-purity.

CHAPTER 5.

about whether the deceased know about events taking place

One day R. Khiya and R. Ionatan were walking through the treasury.

It is said that “the dead know nothing” (Ecclesiaziast, IX. 5). „GV dead people, about whom this is to speak verse, said R. XIya, are not real dead people, but "sinners who, while still alive, are already considered dead."
The question was not resolved this time. Subsequently this has again sparked controversy among scientists, precisely among the sons of the aforementioned R. Xii. One of them, having once encountered a difficulty in their work, asked: "Does our father have any idea about those?
the difficulties we encounter? No, he objected.
another, for it is said: “They suffer, but he does not know, they are in sorrow, but he does not give in to it.”
(Tob, IY, 21). “You’re mistaken,” said the first, because perhaps the dead really do feel their own suffering, but they know nothing about the suffering of the living.”

"You're wrong again, because it's known that they know" all pro-proceeding between people." As proof of this, icy conditions are accompanied by stories already familiar to us about how the deceased once asked to send her a sinben, and how one dead man offered another a perfect sew a walk around the world. "But here's more proof, to add the tireless debater: - Samuel's father was orphans were given money for storage. Samuel went to cemetery to find out from the father where the money is hidden. After some time he saw his father crying and smiling at the same time.

Why are you crying? he asked his father. Because You'll be here soon. Why are you smiling? because you are highly respected on earth. After that he pointed out the place where they were hidden money".

It follows from this that the dead know everything concerning ALIVE.

“It’s possible,” the opponent skeptically notes, “that about the upcoming arrival. Samuel was resurrected in advance, “precisely because of the fame he enjoyed.” At this point the dispute ends. In other metahs of Talud there are indications that R. Khizda, R. Teguda, and others also recognized that the dead possess consciousness; admitted that they possessed it only for a certain period of time. of a long time. Of course, the Talmudic tov, and TB evidence that they cited in their protection, may seem very strange at the present time. However, in the Jewish people% is very firmly established there was this conviction that the dead were all heard at the graves to walk and feel. That is why all Jews have a custom to cry very loudly over the dead, so that to please them and show off my strong pebegan with loud sobs, although without tears. Because they visit the graves of their deceased loved ones and, going to the grave, they cry loudly, calling out the name of the deceased Nika: Leibe! Leibe! Ah, ah! And, becoming quiet again, listen toresponse. He repeats again and listens. Sometimes the echo click between monuments, -and then in the utBsheniye, supposedly hearing the voice of the deceased, he begins to lament to him.

On the basis that the dead are on their graves to hear everything and even know the future fate of one's relatives stvennikov, often turn to them in extreme cases 'in teas to ask for advice. If the father or mother died, and if the daughter is getting married, then on the eve of her wedding, the daughter or son goes to the cemetery and after praying at the mogil parents, father or mother, at a big cry call out the name of the deceased and ask: "Tatele bless me, an orphan." Moreover, to shout and ask he is asking for advice on whether to marry him or not. to be or not. Asks about his future fate and etc. All this exists among the fanatical Hasidim, among the equal vinists, if this custom exists, then it is in the lowest among the civilized there was nothing similar vaet.

Talmudistsk!ya predstavi , —- there is some kind of chaos; the most diverse views have become nod here to each other and intertwine in the most bizarre way. In the tractate Berakhot, p. 18-2, there is a story about how in the cemetery. two spirits were talking to each other: one was inviting. another to take a walk around the world and learn through the the future of the coming disaster of the human race; Goy refused this offer, saying that he buried in a bast made of reeds, and therefore can't get up. In the same vein it is said that one deceased woman asked her mother to send her a comb through the person who was destined to die.
i . There is no doubt that these stories are outside-haystacks in the Talmud without any criticism, - borrowed from pagan customs. Lithuanian and other pagans According to custom, the deceased were given favorite objects in their graves deceased: during excavations they constantly find, -hunter-nobody's shells, fishing, musical instruments and etc., on the assumption that they will be needed by their authorities for the dead and in the new afterlife. .

i ,   ,

The cruelty of the Jewish nature.

The Bible, written by the Jews themselves, is full of such epithets against them. Moses also said to his sons To the Israelites: "You are a stiff-necked people." The prophets [Ezekiel Kiel, Isma and others call the Jews a people “without-

We will find the latest characterization of the Jews in Maryus Fontana in his "General History", where he says : "A Jew knows no measure in anything." When a Jew reigns, his leadership is always cruel, as the ruler - he defies the despot, as the priest - his the authority of tyranny is like a prophet - his sermon is full cursed, like a warrior - he is cruel, like a merchant - his trade is a deception. in any case we can hardly consider these laws an integral part of the Jewish religion, even in the case if we accept that the rules of Sin were transmitted to Moses, concerning the cattle industry.

But once they decided to cut the bird according to the well-known traditions, the pitchfork and its meat are allowed for consumption only then, When these rules are observed, it is no longer surprising. that there were many questions that had to be answered answer, and these answers could again be objected to etc. And if work in this direction continues fifteen centuries, then can one be surprised that Now there is a rich literature on this subject, the study of which requires a lot of time is useless naked and in our modern times even harmful and sibshnaya, Not only Christians, but even the most prudent, The Jews are red and ashamed of this fanaticism nonsense, stupid and harmful.

some distinctive feature of meat.

Of the four-legged animals, the Jews are allowed to eat eat only those cattle that imput cloven hooves and chew food, such as: cows, oxen, sheep, goats, deer, chamois, etc., of course, only if they are contaminated according to the rules defined in the Talmud.

All other animals are prohibited, as they do not imply both of the mentioned conditions or only one, like: hares and pigs. Although the latter have hooves and are divided, but they are absolutely forbidden by Mowe sow, according to the hygienic conditions of the hot climate.

Last year, in the German Reichstag, the draft law on the prohibition of Jewish speech was adopted slaughterhouse dog. Members of the Animal Welfare Society They spoke passionately about the suffering of unfortunate animals. those who fall into the hands of Jewish rebels; they appealed to the good feelings of Christians; they demanded from the state of protection for the cattle from the Jews what kind of hardness of heart, etc.

This issue has been raised in many countries, but the Jews, with their kahal power, declared their protest and the request remained closed.

That the Jews commit outrageous barbarism animals of all kinds, this is well known and must be to become indignant repeatedly out of compassion. In general, Jews entrust their children to R%nik, having received a lot of work, take a knife and pull up under the throat and throws, a goose with a cut throat to rise and live from death, then the butcher and the Jewesses they catch the goose and step on the goose's head with their foot and hold until the goose is strangled with a foot. there is no bird in the Mosaic law of general principles signs distinguishing between permitted and prohibited. Moses called!) 4 kinds of forbidden birds names; but the real translation of these names is not now half known.

In relation to its own, the law is very scrupulous to preserve the holiness and cleanliness.

The text of the Mishnah reads: ‹ Dresses "amgaaretz" (black-worker or farmer) - "filthiness" for use-offerings of "teruma", an offering for the benefit of the priests, tvennye products (dresses of those who use "teruma" -midras, tref) for sacrificial meat; clothes of those using sacrificial meat - midras, treph for cleansing ashes. Iose ben Ioezer was a Hasidim from the priestly class, and his dress was considered "midras" for use laying out the sacrificial meat. Ioanan ben Godgoda all his life he observed his sacred cleansing during ordinary food however, his dress was considered "midras", i.e. trefoil-"for cleaning ash."

The third note: “The dresses of those who use teruma are midrace or tref for those who consume sacrificial meat”, this happened even before the Maccabean era, from the time of the Hasiaction reactions, which in their severity exceeded: priests.

Zamftka 4: “Dresses of those who use sacrificial meat is a midras for cleansing ashes”, this happens from the Saduke sect due to disagreements between the Sadukes kays and Pharisees. Let us return again to the birds.

Jewish experts find that according to some zoological Chinese signs, the difference between biblical wild birds and manual: manual or home-made ones differ from the fact that on their feet the middle fingers are elongated and that besides goiter. They have a stomach equipped with an easily peeled muscular membrane'). From the discussion of Lev Inson it is clear that under the name of clean birds we should understand kill the entire squad of sorids (@aShtaseae) and granivores from the Department of Razzegii.

2) Deut., 14:21.

"to boil a lamb in its mother's milk" was a synonym the words “don’t be obscene!” Josephus Flavius and Philo explain this verse by the desire of the legislator to i .

Philo says: “If you want to eat meat with molokom, then why do you necessarily need to take milk for this? the loco of the mother of the young animal you killed. Provide mothers feed their fetus with their milk at least in the first "You are seven days after his birth." This is how they understood this text by all later translators. In Hebrew the verb “bashol” means tea not only "to cook", but also "to grow"; since the corresponding biblical verses speak about i clergy the first fruits of the earth and animals- , then the Karaites translate the end of the verse: “don’t give the firstborn lamb to grow on the mother's moloch" (scorphe take it to the priest). NF who think that The reason for the prohibition by the legislator was that it was customary tea among ancient peoples to appease the gods with sacrifice, consisting of a lamb boiled in its mother's milk. uses his method to answer this question too.
"The prohibition is repeated three times because it applies, firstly, to four-legged animals, secondly, to

To strengthen this weak motivation of the Talmud, May-Monid, in his great desire to reconcile the people with the burdensome legitimization of the Talmud, the Talmud hesitates for medical reasons that milk is mixed with meat represents unhealthy, indigestible food.
Eben Əzra, on the contrary, declares that the “Ishmaelites” are considered

But if you can’t cook meat with milk, or in molockB, then it still remains to be asked whether it is possible to have the last or before drinking milk. We know that now the Jews do not Fdyat' milky after meat, if six has not passed hours, what time is necessary, or is it sufficient? so that there is no undigested food left in the stomach meat. We see here an example of the development of Talmudic legislation. It is interesting to trace this method in in a few words at a glance. About the fact that meat News forbidden with milk, nothing is said about peat, and it only says that to cook a lamb in its mother's milk shouldn't. By means of interpreters they proved the eclipse, that dBlo here is not in the lamb, but the law concerns everyone ` pets, and not at all in that - his mother milk, or not, but milk in general; and here's the next one The result can be summarized as follows: you can't cook meat what Christians pay for the worst varieties, the Jews went even further. Taking into account that all slaughterhouses are in their power that the elections of cattle tenants slaughterhouse and box collection depend mainly on from them; the Jews, arbitrarily raising the tsny on the tref-meat intended for Christians is subject to indirect tax for their own benefit and various needs Today's life, and then withhold this tax from slaughterhouse tenant.

What is the size of this tax, we provide calculations to drain the darkness, who, having leisure, is not filled with sdBmake this calculation. But, for clarity, we will give all here's an example:

Let's assume that a city with one hundred and fifty thousand The Christian population consumes 50,000 daily pounds of beef. Then, if the Jews raise the price only by one kopeck for every pound, it turns out that chrysanthemums pay a tax of five hundred rubles in favor of the Jews. This will amount to more than one hundred and eighty thousand per year. rubles. But Jews often raise this tax not by one, and for two - three kopecks, that is, they are collected from Christians for the population of such a city a tax of half a millenn per year! But there are a lot of such cities and towns in the devil! Jewish OsBdlost is a thousand, but in the middle there are thirty million Lions Christian population paying this tribute, this wild tax on meat, on the product of first necessity seven million Jews! But, in general, this means to read that the Christian population pays only to Jews for the right to Vst second-grade meat an annual tax of millions lions at fifteen!

It's scary to even think about it, especially if you take into account

Last year I rented an apartment from a pretty rich today F. Russian apartment in a Russian city
I couldn't find it!? There were 18 apartments in the courtyard and they were all occupied exclusively by the "Jerusalem nobles" numerous families. The court was represented by itself a miniature "Jewish kingdom", at the head of which stood my landlord, Jew F. Thanks to nature:
the Jewish kingdom was due to the uncleanliness of the "nobles" full of dirt and garbage. The air was carried from it to a distant meni [udy.

4 Jews kept a permanent staff of servants, consisting of exclusively from Christian village girls from 12 to 18 years old, and three Jews had two each women's servants. The other four Jews, mene sostobodies, hired Christian women for 20-30 kopecks pfek, only “on the Sabbath”, since on the “Sabbath” Jews are not allowed to do anything for a day. Male servants there was one - the janitor Ivan, who received three rubles a month. Ivan, in addition to his direct responsibilities, completed all the work that was very generously given to him Jews, and never knew a holiday.

When he was once asked the question why he on holidays. to work and not go to church, he and he answered: “You, sir, don’t know what’s going on If you serve a Jew, you can't go to the circus. He doesn’t allow it, but I try to listen to him. God forbid I catch a cold.”

Of the 14 Jews, not one paid his servants. 3-4 rubles a month, but they forced me to work very hard a lot, even on Christian holidays.

Usually the girls did all the work, they were cooks, nannies, laundresses, maids, seamstresses and etc. Many of them, on the advice and with the help of Jewish sons-in-law supplemented their meager salaries with vile by trading with your tbllom.

The Church is the majority of girls who served in the Jewish community, none of them observed any fasts or holidays I didn't observe it, but between the tBm these same little girls were accustomed to all this in the village from the very beginning

Many of them, as I learned, did not confess. they did not receive Holy Communion for several years, since the Jews did not let them go to church, instilling in them that they to go to the church is completely unnecessary. for a person.

To every observant person who has lived at least a little in the village, it is well known what kind of love uses among the village population church. Ə It's quite clear. The whole life of a peasant, in the most important its manifestations, starting from the cradle and ending with the very death, is regulated by the laws of the church.

Here, looking at this, the Jews are re-educating the religions despicably and morally Christians, instilling in them wild concepts about the church, completely contrary to those that have developed among Christians from childhood.

Ə: on holidays

they have Christians in the church, the Jews deprive them of the opportunity nost, after six days of hard labor, the seventh dedicate the day to God, prayers and rest. What an evil irony-i .

In case of refusal to do backbreaking, hard work, the two-room apartments were subjected to attacks from the Jews and Jewesses beatings and beatings, which I have involuntarily witnessed more than once telem. If these “humane” means did not work, then The Jews drove out the “disobedient” servants without paying them, i.e. they did not pay the “exiles” for what they had earned with sweat and blood. money, and sometimes they did not return things.

An innocent woman cannot protest. to oppose such a crude, robbery-like, self-government state, since the cunning Jew, in case of protest, begins to threaten her with the police and the court for the crime committed allegedly stealing from him. Threats of this kind always achieve the tsfli and the "exile", fearing the judgment, leaves the greedy-The Jew gives his money and things to him and goes to look for another place. But it's not so easy to find a job. And there's hunger tormenting you, and the cold pierces, from which you want to take shelter even in a doghouse. The situation is critical... Forces weaken, energy falls, but ahead everything is just as urgent and bezprosvetno...

And there you go, there's no other way out, thrown out into the street like a dog, a woman indulges in debauchery and drunkenness state, and in the end ends up again in the damned "bondage" to someone corrupted to the core, a Jew who, with the aim of easy money, leads a merciless vile, disgusting trade in her tBlom.

My landlord, the Jew F., hired me as a a village maid, a 15 year old Christian girl. Her name was her Alena. Alena was a real “child of nature”: healthy ravishing, beautiful, fair, with a bright blush on her dark skin, tanned cheeks, and despite his, comparatively, young years, reached full physical development, as and most of the village girls her age are grown in the bosom of nature and untouched by the blessings civilizations. F. paid her three rubles per month.

At first, full of energy and strength, Alena obediently did all the hard work; cooked, cleaned rooms, washed floors, washed and ironed clothes, etc. and in addition, she nursed five Jews and three Jews

Moreover, Lithuanian regions and located in the borders of the Austrian Empire Empires (in Galicia) also speak this language, among others then they moved there from Crimea soon after me after the arrival of the Tatars, i.e. in the KhSU century. This the short-term stay of the Tatars in Crimea, of course, could not have influenced the Karaites so much that they could completely forget their native language and at the same time time to make an effort to learn something new from the Tatars. It was implo-by another hundred in that case, if the Tatars brought with soboyu culture, like Rome or Greece, but, as stno. Tatars came to Crimea (at the beginning of the 13th century) semi-wild nomadic people and lived in tents. Only at the beginning of the 14th century Oagib-Girey ordered They replaced the kibitkas with houses and they became osfdly: therefore, the Tatars, being completely uncultured, native, they could not impose their language on them in any way a period of such a short time. Thus The Turkic language spoken by the Karaites is a very ancient and they managed to assimilate it very early times, being in all dependence on the Tatars.

In addition, later the Karaites were included the remnants of the Old Testament Khazars, which existed vali in Crimea after the destruction of their dominion, and how the raims managed to morally subdue them and they merged with their co-religionists, the Karaites; and formed one people. As is known, many things contributed to this, the similarity of their religion, language and also the fact that and earlier there were mutual sympathies between them and close friendship, as was said above. And the rest parts of the Khazars, in all likelihood, merged with the Greeks, Polovtsians and Kumavs, peoples who dominated in TB vfka in Crimea.

| Report by Shchepkin G. Thoughts on the Blostok pogrom.

On June 28, D. Shchepkin reported to G. Duma about the blast
<a pogrom. His entire report is a triumph of the new prinprinciple of the glorious Russian constitution: the right to lie without with muddy shamelessness, mocking the best feelings by the qualities of Russian people who do not even dare to doubt,
when the slanderer, draped in a deputy's toga,
will, breaking down and posing, mock everything, what else did not sell out to Judaism. When you read this pathetic "history-"richeskiy" report, then you involuntarily ask yourself the question, what is it dictated by: bewilderment or calculation on the Duma's complete inability to sort out all this lie?
The arguments and premises are so primitively naive, so clumsily drawn to the ultimate goal of the entire report - to turn the wolves of the Jewish Bund into lambs, which is not a lot of work to figure out this game.

“We have many old, already dead liberals,

They fight for the Jews because once upon a time (in the 19th century)
it was new, liberal, and necessary. "What do we need?
Why is it that now the Jews triumph and oppress the Russians?
For them, the Russian still oppresses the Jew”... - I think that "This is just the beginning" (the influx of Jews into the Russian literature and journalism), and that the Jews will seize more a large circle of flattery in literature; and already in life,

"I don't even touch upon the current reality:

"The Jew is spreading with terrifying speed." A after all, a Jew and his kahal are the same as a “conspiracy”

against the Russians."
. Dostoevsky.

We will allow ourselves to cite a number of figures taken by us from an official source and compiled by the state-

we will establish. Therefore, the competence to drive—the figures below cannot be subject to doubt and dispute. Our source from which we will to give figures, is the “Report of the Main Directorate of the non-tax collections and state sales of alcoholic beverages for 1899."
St. Petersburg, 1900. Our Ministry of Finance, as a treasury
, it is difficult to suspect in anti-Semitism and in the deliberate distortion of figures to the detriment of the Jews.

The percentage of violators of the said “Regulation” in the south nom and southwestern regions between Christians and Iu-
The actions are distributed as follows:

The Jews, as the reader can see, give in these provinces
a very significant percentage of violators; so, in

In 1896 they accounted for 29.5 percent of the total number of violators.
telev, in 1897—already 39.3 percent, in 1898—40.2 and 1899—39.6 percent

Most of the violators were Jews in 1899.

in Podolsk province (71.7 percent), then in Chernigov province - (58.5), Kiev - (42.6), Kherson - (46.6), Poltava - (42.9), Bessarabian - (40.5) and Volyn - (37.8 percent).

To understand the meaning of these numbers, we need to between the percentage of crimes and the percentage ratio There is no difference in the number of Jews to the Christian population. So that Jewish crime is not higher than Christian crime. skoy, it is necessary that they constitute, for example, in Podolsk- in the same month they make up only 18.7 percent there. Unfortunately, the criminality of Jews is higher than that of Christians (71.7 percent: 18.7 percent) almost 4 times; in Chernigov- Jews make up 4.4 percent of the population of the province, and their crime rate is expresses 58.5 percent Dovskaya is 13 times higher than Christian one.

vol. 1-24

The largest number of Jewish criminals was observed in the North-Western provinces, as can be seen from the table below:

And here we observe the same phenomenon. This is a huge inconsistency between the percentage of Jewish crime the percentage of the Jewish population to the Christians stiansky. Thus: in the Vitebsk province the number of Jews- criminals 79.3 percent, and the number of Jewish population in relation to Christianity is expressed in numbers 14.8 percent in Vitebsk province 74.3 and 12.9 percent in Grodno Nenskaya 77 and 19.7 percent, etc.

Let us now turn to the Vistula region, our own kind of beaten land, where the Jews not only do not consider themselves oppressed and persecuted, but in fact the state to lead and rule, to direct public affairs

LIFE, HAVE IN YOUR HANDS both industry and trade and printing.

In the provinces of the Polish region there are Jews, although not in the number of people, as in the northwestern region, but still occupy a prominent position among criminals, which is evident from the following figures:

In 1898, Christians accounted for 69 percent. total chithe strength of the violators, and the Jews are 31 percent. And zdfei, in this blessed Jewish Palestine%, which is for them Poland is affected, the number of Jewish violators is greater Christian violators twice, because the Jews are make up no more than 15 percent of the total population

Poland.

The figures we have given are much more eloquent. But they are also important for other reasons: numbers This is not a fact; it is difficult to argue with them. For factfacts of a different nature are emerging. In parallel to the Jewish predatorthe usurer and the loan shark are brought to the Jews and Judaizing similar facts from the Christian environment are widely reported. To expose the kulak-Jew to the misto and bring him to prison There are a dozen Russian fists.

You can't do that with numbers, especially with official ones. with official figures collected, so to speak, any tribe or people can give criminal statistics. The number of crimes is fully clearwith integrity and impartiality outlines for us the internal

They also desire equality for themselves.

But "equal rights" never elevated the Jews morally and did not improve their relations with the peoples, willingly or unwillingly, but have already recognized the equality of rights for the Jews. Unfortunately, only the opposite results were achieved.

Let's take the Rothschilds as an example, without a doubt, in the sweat of our faces those who earn their bread.

The story is not long and not new.

The founder of the dynasty was Meyer-Amshel (without a family name), He began to call himself Rothschild arbitrarily, borrowing vav this surname from red $ ( ) lane of the Frankfurt ghetto, where he lived. From the youth I was preparing to be a rabbi, i.e. I was diligently studying:

Between the TBm, on the contrary, ideas and virtues constitute the basis of Aryan society. Jewish community the state can easily tolerate a certain dose of corruption, then how can the same dose be sufficient for lozhiya obshchestva arytsev. Without representing any non-conveniences for Jews, some types of freedom are not even incidental to use for the purpose of using the subject (for example, everything that which allows for the poisoning of the masses of the population with alcohol), and yet, are fatal for the Aryans. Finally, in Judaism a person develops from himself into n$fwhat is cBlwell-centralized, without the slightest deviation, nenija, egoism rules, burning in desires and cold in calculations; from childhood, a Jew knows how to concentrate to base one's actions on one's personal interests, which, being sacred to him, it represents in his eyes absolute and divine.

Thus, a Jew is a simplified being. with the tBm filled with only the given-elementary structure, has no need for radiation education. Completely different is the case with the Aryans. For them, education is a namebut the problem that must be resolved first of all is go; here it is required that every person in himself bore the mighty foundations of the Aryan civilization, so that his mind and the spirit forever received the seal of thoughts of the immense greatness and irrevocable purity. The task is not at all to turn him back, instilling worship into him money and methods of deception. – It is necessary and proper in everything his beings to reveal the striving for the noble and self-rejected, - the heavenly ideal.

G. The reason for this fact lies again, mainly, in the character of the Jews themselves. It is well known:
the hardships they endured during the conquest of the land of Canaan and in a nervous, treacherous way (for example, in Shechem%, [Jericho and other cities); endless internal turmoil, which reached the point of extermination by the masses of their own

While destroying each other, they all, in addition, committed the most vicious evil against the very inhabitants of Jerusalem.

D. In Egypt, under the foreign pharaoh Aphobis (Apapi), Jews came during the enslavement of the country by the Gyks (n$to

But the Egyptians themselves saw it differently. “And they gave him (10-

Generally speaking, the situation was becoming such that Judaism itself was not deceived in relation to the result.

“By the action of his strong hand, he (the pharaoh) even profited a thread of them (the Jews) from their land." (Ex., YI, 1).

“66 male Jews came, and through 430 years ago, after the expulsion of the Hyks by Amos [,—at the nayshynal-nom Pharaoh Maneth, there were 600,000 men of them, besides " (Genesis, I, 26; Exodus, , 37).

And when they came out of Egypt, when Pharaoh, with haste, stew, began to drive them away, the Jews lured out such a number silver and gold that they robbed the Egyptians of (this is what they say appears three times: Exodus, III, 20-22; XI, 1-3; XII, 35 and 36).

And the Jews left with great wealth (Gen. , 14). | |

Kabbalah goes further. The new Kabbalists are for the truth.
The only thing that is recognized by the common sense is that the common Kabbalah is not foot.

Thus, the most famous of the Kabbalists, Rabbi Isaac

the development of social societies moves only through modification remnants. From this it is clear that Freemasonry itself there is nothing new.

Deification of the sexual instinct - under the guise of creation the origin and reception of the principles of the universe;
human masses under the pretext of exalting the "po-sacred" over the ignorant; tyranny of the hidden rulers and the barbarity of the despotism of the secret societies themselves, supposedly in the name of freedom; finally, the meanness and cruelty of crimes, —invariably mark their march, on the way to the Bkov, the woes of human nature, as well as all the

It is clear that the Kabbalists find everything in Scripture, whatever they want.

Regardless of the symbolic, there is a real cab-

On the other hand, one cannot help but note that many Jews, especially Orthodox ones, recognize elephantism a useless innovation - in any case, not serious. The intentions of 1udaism, as well as its present-day spheres of activity are too vast to allow them to but it was necessary to shrink at least to political independence in Palestine%. Equally, unprecedented and unrealizable the idea of purchase or conquest is acceptable for Jews other peoples of the state territory, and even in connection with land born for Christians. The participation of Jews in this sphere can be compared to the development with the ray of tropical sunshine on the polar vegetation activity.

Arthur Schopnengauer is justifiably strict in his slbdovanii "On the rights and politics." This is what he thinks:

"A Jew wandering around the world is nothing other than personification of the entire Jewish tribe. Having made a mortal grfkh against Mesai, the Savior of the world, he not only when he is not relieved from the burden of his wickedness, but will be an eternal vagabond without a fatherland, among strangers to him of the people. Such is the crime, such is the fate of this malazy people, who, amazing dflo, being driven out of his homeland more than two thousand years ago back, nevertheless, continues to drag out his existence and wander, among you, like so many other great and famous peoples, alongside which such an insignificant tribe even not worth mentioning - the Assyrians, the Medes, The Persians went into eternal rest and disappeared without return. So, even today we meet this Ivan Bezzemelamong all the peoples of the world, and he is nowhere at home, but not a foreigner anywhere, defending his nationality. with unwavering persistence, and still tryingto take root somewhere, so that, finally, to cheat itself a fatherland, without which any nation is the same, that the balloon is in the air. Alas, to this day, it lives Israel is a parasite at the expense of other nations and not at the expense of his own, but on their land. But this does not allow him to be inspired the most sincere patriotism—in the name of one's own nationality, as is clearly shown by the strictest the harmony with which they all hold on to one and the same for everything. Therefore, there is no more artificial and false, there is no more false idea, whose idea of Jews is hundred, as about the relipose sect. When, with the goal of supporting you are mistaken, they are borrowing the term from the church language - religious confession, then, obviously, they only come to calculated stratagem%, with the aim of confusing true concepts about things. So, I think, the most use of such expressions should not be tolerated, because we need to talk about Jewish ours, and not about anything else.

The obviousness of this fact is evident, however, already from the dominance of the Talmud among the sons of Israel, from time immemorial times. By such dominance we should understand the uncontrollable desire of the Jews for tyranny over others:
by our peoples, invariably manifested itself on the path of history, whenever the opportunity presented itself. This nail it is necessary to hammer into the consciousness of every goy tirelessly - until until it is no longer possible to pull him out of there.

The main means of achieving tyranny is

For my part, when discussing the greatness of the Talmud,

The sale itself, contrary to popular belief, was carried out in favor of not only Germany (see above p. COXXI).

Twice accused by the court of his comrades, Dreyfus refused withdrew from the cassation appeal against the second verdict, i.e. he himself admitted his guilt. No definition of forgery the court of cassation, which is ruled by Jews, will no longer wash away the since this recognition. The public has no idea about the documents reviewed behind closed doors Denmark, as required by state security. However, the Jewish press succeeded in convincing many of the innocence news of the "prisoner from Devil's Island". And everything that is generally prodflano was Jewish in Dreyfuss, amazingly and unparalleled, shameful and dishonest, exceeds all the death of shame and insolence.

Is it possible to be surprised at what is happening? now, at the behest of the Jews, we ourselves are in the “state-noy Duma? Only blind hatred of Russia or stubborn ignorance can turn a blind eye to this...,.

A lot of people had gathered at the piers of the New Mole; armed teams
The battleships, arriving at the port in boats, were greeted with loud ‹hurrah!›.
The police to the port was in the usual composition, too insufficient for termination of the arising unrest.

From early morning, a crowd of Jews and Jewesses5 headed to the port, and, what is especially
It was noticeable that in the crowds and groups of Jews the overwhelming majority of people belonged to the youth of both sexes. Forms of higher and average, all kinds in general, local and out-of-town, were involved with groups of young Jewish women in light dresses. In Odessa, there are many middle and lower, private Jewish schools, whose students wear fancy uniforms jackets with colored bands, jackets with piping, embroidered collars and with new decorations. As everywhere on the streets of the city, you will be amazed by the variety the dress code of Jewish youth, so it was impossible to go to the port lo not to pay attention to the multitude of Jews5,-- dresses that arrived at the port.

Even more noticeable was the presence of a large number of people Jews in city costumes and young Jewish women, smartly dressed, talking with their gentlemen all day long.

At first, all this militant young generation of Israel whispered, winked significantly, grouped, but, little by little, the excitement ambassador and grew. Shouts of ‹Hurray!› from the crowd that greeted the armed sloops-

By two o'clock in the afternoon, the fanatical crowd had reached its extreme limits.

Armed gangs of Jews rushed down the gangways onto private steamships and
The crews of the ships were driven ashore by force. There were cases of resistance on the part of

The threats were accompanied by shots. In the battles of the steamship crews there were no steamship crews and administration of shipping companies, supported private strikes and disagreements, was the reason that the teams left whether the steamships, without showing any resistance, could repel the attacks of Jewish gangs.

A great influence on the spirit of teams is also the fear of the omnipotent
the Jewish anarchist "Self-Defense Committee", which terrorized the working population of the city—murders of secret and overt.

U. Evil attempt on Sevastopol%.

We quote from the New Time a letter from an eyewitness, Lieutenant Bolshev, about the assassination attempt on the commandant General Neplyuev, whose victim was about a hundred people. Having described how, after going around the front, the general began to let but rejected this assumption, without even condescending to refute it. Why?

Isn't the power of logic necessary in economic and social policy?
Mr. Petrazytsky is not just any minister, but a Cadet himself, and even a scientist become clear.

“The house, which is in the city, impressing the wall, will remain forever with the buyer-

How can we talk about the nationalization of city houses?

On this account, Mr. Herzenstein is calm both for himself and for his patron, Mr. Lazar Polyakov, whose land bank now operates almost exclusively in relation to mortgages of city real estate.

Thus, the foundations of the ‹cadet› agrarian program of science are HP: Some additional facts.

A. As has already been said, we do not write any history of the Jews in general, nor, in in particular, the history of the current “liberation movement”, or at least called "pogroms" by the Jews themselves. On the other hand, the name of some experience gained from a number of trials where we had to stand in defense accused Christians, we, to a certain extent, managed to get acquainted with the question-catfish, and therefore we wanted to express here our view on the pogroms as a phenomenon mass pathology, caused by hopeless despair, in essence wrong and leading to negative results.

SSSU

In the interests of the Jews themselves, the spontaneous causes of this phenomenon should not with the impartiality that the profound seriousness of the problem deserves.

However, we do not see this—even in the Blostock events.

In an incomprehensible weakening, Judaism, as it were, is no longer only over us, but also over himself.

Meanwhile, over the last few years, there has been a wealth of material about the cat - rum should not be forgotten.

If, under the influence of one's own disgust for the food exploitation and lalmudism, local authorities, even military force, sometimes, are not in a state to bethey are forced to provide the Jews with decisive protection—in the hurricane of popular oppression

Jewishness and the police devoted to it, with their zeal beyond reason, sometimes adds fuel to the fire, inflaming popular passions—new, and therefore even more so untruth. Such were the deeds of the police captain Korsak, in Starodub, in 1891, and Gomel police chief Raevsky, in 1903.

In parallel with this, in recent times, there are crazy children of “their own” bodomishlyashchikh›, who, denying to others any manifestation of independenceand monopolizing it only for their own benefit, they brought the people to such extremes events such as those that took place in Tver or Tomsk.

Finally, sometimes even the old Jewry itself is horrified by the evil of their own ossified fellow terrorists, who, for example,

but the Cadet majority in the Duma also counts.

What do the revolutionaries want?

The following resolutions, adopted at the secret congress of Russian revolutionaries that had just ended in Stockholm

This program, says “Khievlyanin”, has been approved and accepted not only the revolutionaries who had gathered in Stockholm, and their main leaders, from Some of whom are staying in St. Petersburg, while others are vacationing abroad.

XY. Senkevich—about socialism%,

The famous Polish writer Henryk Sienkiewicz, in Warsaw newspapers and magazines, published a letter, inviting well-meaning people to unite for liberation of the working classes from the unsterinous violence of the socialists.

This call says, among other things:

I

Hundreds of thousands of workers, willing to work, are forced, revolted i is, . - to close their dBla, and thousands of families of workers are suffering and starving. Na-such an unbearable tyranny began as the world had never seen before.

‹It is absolutely necessary, finally, that the whole society rise up

The Czech magazine "Vlast" ("Fatherland"), from which these lines are taken, adds:

‹This is how a smart Polish writer judges the machinations of the socialists.
Such a proclamation should have been published much earlier. This writer would have served the dfl much more than this when it was named, dangerous
"So much evil has already been done by the scoundrels." And /

Sienkiewicz's appeal serves as an intelligible antithesis to another - the rebellious call for humiliation of the police officers who, according to the fair decree-the Minister of Internal Affairs of Mr. Stolypin, loving their homeland and dying for her (during the current turmoil, several hundred of them have already died).

It is no secret to anyone, equally, how socialist plans are, so are the tyrannical desires of the “cadet” and other related parties
i .

That is why it is worthwhile to remember the following:

I. The candidacy of Prince Urusov.

In the State Duma, he is the "representative of the Kaluga province", Prince Sergiy Dmitraevich Urusov.

He not only rose to the rank of actual state councilor, but and served as governor twice, after which he made his way, even too far for a long time, in the Comrades of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

He had long dreamed of an independent ministerial portfolio, which which would have been handed over to him in the normal way, but by free appointment by the State giving. But since his dreams did not come true, he decided to achieve his tsfli in a different way.

Elected to the State Duma, he, although he took a seat in it,
For one and a half months he remained stubbornly silent, patiently waiting for the right moment, and namely, the appearance on the tribune of the Minister of Internal Affairs— Stolypin.

The calculation was obviously as follows:

The Minister, in his speech, must touch upon the Police Department.
This is a Department in which, in essence, not everything is for the mo-they can be made public. And I will go ahead and make them public, for the benefit of many,
As Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs, it was entirely possible to

and listen to many of these secrets and even receive official information about them by a crazy way. By disclosing official secrets I acquired enormous popularity among the majority of the Duma, which, in gratitude for my revelations, Czechia, and will nominate me as his candidate for the post of Minister of the Interior Let Shipov strive for this portfolio, as a “smart organizer”, Muromtsev—as a ‹tactful leader›, Rodichev—as a ‹violent orator›,—I I will be only nicer to the Jews and the "kadsts" we will expose police secrets, thank I have a large number of them recorded."

It’s said - it’s done. As soon as Minister Stolypin spoke to the Duma my with the protection of the active duty of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, Prince Urusov immediately stood up and, with pure Aladin swagger, began to smash that Great government, of which he had been a member for so long, receiving all sorts of mercy, and which always treated him with such complete trust.

Having abused5—in the broadest sense6—this5 fortune, Prince Ur-
The owl received a storm of applause from all the Duma hooligans, with who eagerly accepted him into their embrace as a new, worthy member.

Prince Urusov ‹exposed› a very ugly “secret” of the Department of lishchi (printing of political appeals); but he did not limit himself to this, and to us%-
Indeed, to please the Duma and the Duma revolutionaries, he generalized that individual the fact that constituted the whole mystery, to monstrous proportions exaggerated it by adding all sorts of office gossip and jokes, - as reliable facts.

But the question is not whether the prince revealed beautiful or ugly secrets. Urusov, and in that, did he himself act beautifully as a defector in the ranks of Russia's worst enemies, handing them a new weapon of lies and slander. against the Tsar and His Government?

What would the revolutionaries call that “comrade” who became a member of the Duma? would expose their beautiful and ugly secrets, if they could be from him are true only because, being in the ranks of the rebels, he enjoyed their father? They would have called him by a name corresponding to his deed. But They, of course, will not call Prince Urusov by that name, since his “disblachenija, can only support the efforts of the revolutionaries. They will cover his lavframes and, undoubtedly, will nominate him as a candidate for the first position of state fasting.

We won’t be surprised if tomorrow or the day after tomorrow we read it in the official seditious organs, among other fables, that “Prince S. D. Urusov is "I was in Peterhof," that the Star Chamber was extremely alarmed by his candidacy. date›, tBm more, that ‹Prince Urusov was handed the ukz about his appointment, in which he can, at any moment, insert the amount, date and month of his own meanings."

After all, the false statements daily invented by the revolutionary stoyears, her debts already amounted to 198,435,500 marks, and 1893 fiscal year increased to 1,500 million marock Since then, increasing annually, the total state Germany's debts exceeded all expectations. This, first of all, is explained by the fact that љ , - because of the rapid increase in military and naval expenditures sky strength. For the period from 1872 to 1893, the army and navy cost 10,936,912,500 marks,—the whole state the donation expenses of the newly-minted empire were equal to 14,961,227,000 marks. In other words, expenses for military and 430/ .

It goes without saying that "state defense" if not to the same extent, then it burdens accordingly budget of other states - along with its non-funded growth. As for the gold currency, the The worst result is the result of products of the agricultural industry, i.e.

On the other hand, we see that purchasing power gold is increasing continuously as the total quantity the quantity of gold money in the world is growing much more slowly , volume of produced human labor. One could even say that gold competes with radem. Exhausting its energy, radius almost never loses it, so that even a tiny fraction of this substance, as they say, enough to raise the fleet of Great Britain with the reserve of his strength Britain to the heights of Mont Blanc.— According to Mordecai Marxa, an ounce of gold and twenty hours of human labor can be connected by an equal sign. This is already because, having paid for any work, gold returns to to a Jew, of course, with interest, so that, through a new loan, pay for new twenty hours of work and for the new the same percentages, return to the Jew, etc. From here the slFduthat an ounce of gold is equivalent to not twenty hours, but an endless mass of labor. The absurdity of such a position: the marriage of things is aggravated by the fact that for the construction, a canal or a railway in a certain country, on its own land, with its materials and workers, It is necessary to borrow gold from the Jews.

Among these conditions, especially in Russia, inter- the national balance of which is ias-iven, and not ` active, it is necessary to use extreme efforts to save 30-is carried out from beginning to end.

That the specified requirements do not follow from one another:
Wow, it’s not hard to be convinced of this.

First of all, from the position——“God’s land” it does not follow it is that the Russian people or its state, in the foreground a known territory, have absolute power. From the above:
i it is impossible to derive not only property, but also the supreme equality of any one people. The given formula is re obliges to dispose of the land in such a way that it lived for the benefit of all mankind. Further, from the state:
the demand for national supremacy is by no means evident nasonalizai.

The concepts of supremacy and property do not cover each other, and if the supremacy is dedicated to the common good gu, then the people must make such use of the earth no, which, at the given moment, corresponds to this good.
On what basis should the land become an object?
common property, when, under these or other historical circumstances data, more closely harmonizes with the conditions of society private property for military benefit?

It is clear that the question can only be resolved by indicating
To do this, you need to know the country and its history, which, of course, is inconvenient for those who are free from knowledge of the theory-TIKOV.

Further, from the usual “agrarian” reforms, logically of sky leaps, the roughest one is the one that consists in the transition from nationalization to the demand for transfer land into the hands of those who cultivate it. Confusion about it reaches its apogee.

We see a confusion of equal rights for all citizens to benefit from the productive forces of the land and the right to serve the interests of the land. for the benefit of the entire population, i.e. both farmers and non-agricultural part of it. equal, and in the transmission of her TBm, whoever can and wants to return to do it is to the greatest benefit of the entire population.

The absurdity of such formulas as “transfer of land only to those who work with personal labor”, and “work- "the new norm" is further revealed from the following:

At first glance it may seem that the exception hired labor in agriculture is a blessing for the poor step of the rural population. Meanwhile, being understood literally, it represents the utmost cruelty precisely in relation to the orphans and the disadvantaged. Peasant woman - a widow with small children should be, according to this recipe, expelled from the land cultivated by the deceased father of the family, and a peasant who does not possess inventory is deprived of the opportunity to feed himself with the agricultural labor he was accustomed to, although would be for hire. |

But if we take into account mental work, then the concept of "labor standards" is evaporating, since this

However, the “labor norm” remains unsuitable even a native article by the editor of the newspaper "Russian Land", S. Glinka, published on August 2, 1906, in issue No. 124 of this courageous

of the Russian press:

The greatest crime. Every deception of one's neighbors is a measure-meanness and baseness. But when deceivers resort to deceiving adults, education of educated people—their criminality is mitigated by the fact that they are educated educated people are imbued with all means of self-defense. They can figure out how to man, they can resist him. When the youth is deceived, and you are more dark masses, then what is the seriousness of the consequences of deception, the darkness it is more a serious crime. The height of crime is deceiving hungry people, struggling with their last strength, with communications that the deceivers don't even think about

This is exactly what the ‹ka-det› party did. In order to secure the support of the so-feeling of the rural population degenerating as a result of the constant lack of food No, the leaders of the party assured the peasants that they would win the Duma in their favor, of the whole land and even for free. And in order to recruit landowners into their ranks-

Professor Milyukov did sign two programs, of which one was distributed among the peasants, and it said that the land would be given away to them without ransom, and dougaya—for the memory, and in it it was stated that the land will be bought out at a fair price....

The deception was committed quite openly, quite deliberately—for the sake of that the landowners will not hand over Milyukov, and the peasants will not call this vile prodBlk%.

The eyes, of course, did not recognize it. And not only the peasants, but also the educated society was at a dead end. G. Milyukov very skillfully covered up the ends deception, and even when the question was raised in the press—what is the origin of the two? programs written by Miliukov should be considered correct, he established he attacked the whistleblowers with abuse and swearing. “How dare you suspect?” he said. professors are deceived! Thus, the tactics of the imaginary benefactors are reduced to the above, criminal deception. Before the elections, tempting communications were made to everyone in full knowledge that they would never be fulfilled. The deception was based on that either the Government or the State Council will not allow the opening that robbery. If, however, it is not less, the project of violent alienation of the lands will pass, then so many exceptions will be created that party members will will not suffer any loss.

In the State Duma, the most extreme demands were put forward - but with the aim of causing the Government's bankruptcy. When the Government and his said, there was a hubbub and shouting that the Duma would fight for the interests of the peasants, and next to the TBM, members of the Duma traveled around Russia with the Central Bank to call everywhere riots or, as the late Herzenstein said, ‹illuminations›, according to meniyu dumtsev, robberies and fires served as expressions of popular indignation on the government's disagreement with the Duma's project, although no project has yet been adopted It was. Under the cover of all this, the Duma commission cooked up a project that has no effect. nothing in common with the Russian people, as they were loudly pronounced in the Duma, for the whole world to hear.

Supporting the population and the representatives of the peasants hopes for the Duma land project, the party "ka-det" processed its d1:extras, rushing with all their might #5 to seize the power. From the Duma Caëedry of the distribution The demands became more and more brazen, the requests poured out like from a horn of abundance, in the population! there were disturbances, in the middle of the army there was propaganda by the members of Luma themselves...

When everything fell apart, when the Government decided to dissolve the Duma, the deceivers launched a vigorous agitation that the Duma had been dissolved for the entire land project. Meanwhile, judging by the statements and orders Governments, it goes to the point of satisfaction needs of the agricultural population than all the Milyukovs...

And how many serious crimes have already been committed and are being committed every day!

Z. On the other hand, there are also such judicial data nya, against which there is nothing to argue.
| A little bit of statistics. The Journal of the Ministry of Justice published vana ‹statistics of state crimes", of course, carefully hushed up our "liberation" press, but it should be known to Russians people, whose name is used to cover up vile, treasonous sedition, the third year tormenting our homeland.

These statistics, covering a three-year period, reveal the backstage of a perfect events and, with the present light of the ‹Russian‹ revolution, establish-

It is the Russian people who are least to blame for the revolution.

This is what official statistics show, which can but to remain silent, that is, to hide, but which cannot be refuted, against which it is not even possible to object, which is why the only thing left to do is to silence them, whoever wants to to cover up one's villainy with someone else's name.

Jews make up 4.2 percent of the population of Imoeria; including the same attracted over a three-year period for political reasons, the Jews make up 29.1 percent, that is, 85 seven times more than their percentage in the population.

Orthodox (Russians) make up 73.2 percent of the population of the Empire, including those involved in political affairs over a three-year period are

The remaining 19.7 percent are made up of other foreigners, mainly Poles.
kov' and litov'i' (14.4 percent).

Making up barely a fifth of the population of the Empire, a small third of all political criminals. Per 100,000 Russian of the population there are 4.4 brought to justice for police crimes tical affairs, and for every 100,000 Jewish population there are 35 attracted.
In the Russian population there is one political criminal per 23,000 man, in the mass of the Jewish population one political criminal at accommodates 2,600 people.

'Thus, there are nine times more Jewish revolutionaries than Russians.

This applies equally to the whole of Russia, that is, not only to the devil

It is also interesting to note that the motto of our resolution is: - "867

Doesn't it mean resorting to crude falsification, calling this revolution
"Russian"? If it is a manifestation of the "great genius of the Jewish spirit," then Why should we take away this “great genius” and spirit from the Jews? Russian people, in its masses, neither the body nor the soul are involved in this revolution, aimed against Par. Russia and the Russian people, - and the name “Russian” menfe of everything Triumph of the Jews. - Exactly the same as in the previous year of the Russians. People, reading newspapers, followed the development of our unfortunate country day after day wars, experiencing Liaoyang, Mukden, Port Arthur and, finally, Tsushima, in order to finish in Portsmouth and get what was started in Russia; in the present-In this year, Russian people have to follow the same campaign and receive such kind of information.

But then the Russian people were hardly as ashamed as they are now. we had a formidable military and naval force, which, through our negligence, we only they were unable to foresee or predict. But although the war caught us in the bad, it was carried for ten thousand miles and was incredibly hard and miserable, at the moment of the start of peace negotiations, Russia had only just begun to see the danger and woke up. If the attitude of Petersburg were different, one could say that the present The real, people's war is just beginning. //The betrayal of Ortsmouth is the nascent national movement was at an end. Cowardice overcame and squeezed Russia has its monetary system by the throat, and here, Russia, as a great military power-Zhava was buried in a vile and dirty manner...

Now there is another war. And here there is defeat after defeat! But his It is not a madly brave, animated and powerful enemy that wears it, but a pitiful one, a cowardly, parasitic tribe among humanity, like an ulcer constantly spreading neck of Russia from the very time we accomplished the historical and cultural crime—they killed and divided our Slavic sister Poland from the Prussians.

They have been dealing with the great, hundred-too-million-strong Russian people since then There are 14 million Jews in a merciless war. Before our eyes, the struggle is all over It is getting worse and the beating is clearly leaning towards the enemy.

But this victory is of a different nature than the Japanese one.

Is this what Japan fought for? For its greater or lesser legitimate predominance in Asia. In order to push us back, who have gone too far, who grabbed too much of someone else's, not measuring their strength with their appetites. Japan was a terrible blow to our pride, to our prestige in East and in Asia, Russia is still just as independent and great, and tomorrow, becoming only on its national foundations, it can again be powerful and formidable.

A completely different matter is the Jewish war and Jewish victories.

Six million aliens will attack us not in the name of equality - this is only a mask, but in the name of domination over the Russian people5. Limited in prwah, locked in the devil's shadow, and all despised, Jews of the factpractically become almost masters of Russia. They captured the main economic centers countries; with the help of land and commercial banks, they imposed a terrible medicine, advocacy, printing; not having the right of residence, they seeped everywhere and everywhere they tried to take away or enslave the main folk crafts. In defiance of their international organization, the Jews seized the Russian state credit and, at any moment, take our government by the throat.

These are the disenfranchised and oppressed! What will happen under equality, that is, under rights of free universal residence, free purchase of land, free, without standardization, education in state schools?

And so, there comes a war, and the government of a great power suffers defeat for defeat. “Surrender,” cries Israel, the further orphaned resistance is not It is possible. We will ruin you materially, we will destroy you morally, we will create we have such an internecine struggle in Russia that everyone will fall out with each other and not a stone will be left on a stone of Russia. We bombarded you with bombs, we

we find your government in an impossible position, since we will destroy by the hands of revolutionaries, one state lord after another. Surrender/»

And the weakened government throws out a white flag. According to the proverbial

This significant phenomenon should be considered from two points of view.
Firstly, there is no doubt that the revolutionaries are weakened by the energetic government activity, secondly, the unexpected “prudent” statement of the bunyes" about "expropriations" and "confiscations" indicates some kind of cooling revolutionary fervor in the Jewish environment. The latter circumstance is very important.
The Russian Revolution was run by Jews. In this they were completely . Actually, Russian revolutionaries have not yet achieved anything from the their program, and the Jews have already achieved very little. Remaining on paper, they became full-fledged, it's a joke to say, in the highest legislative5 one cannot help but wonder: will a more favorable time come soon?

and will it ever come?

This is a question that the simple-minded “advanced” Russians do not even think about.
They have to rack their brains, it greatly occupies the Jews. After all, they now have a tit in in their hands; they really need a pie in the sky!

The Jewish movement, strictly national, only temporarily rolled into the Russian language Russian liberation movement. For unprejudiced people it was clear that, at a certain moment, these currents will separate and each will go in its own direction

How far will they diverge? It is probably not difficult to predict. At that time, how Russian "liberators" set fantastic, clearly unrealistic goals

Finally, in the religious sphere, the sons of Tuda are implacable enemies of Christianity, rushing towards it, what is called, with a knife to the throat, as if through bribery the organs of the press controlled by them, as well as by means of despotic masonic laws or orders, which, from the Masonic lies, dictated by them to governments.

Making the impudence of its dominance felt everywhere, on the very soil that is washed by the tears and blood of our ancestors, the Jews, being a complete nonentity a hundred years ago, by force, today they turned the native Christians into their own slaves, and they were given absolutely nothing except their own holy, treacherous yoke.

Jewish robbery in thoughts and morals, obviously, leads us, Aryans, to shame and destruction.

Do Jews behave better or worse than other peoples?...

In contrast to many cultured peoples, Jews exhibit little inclination towards national unification; their racial cohesion, in its own way,

The Zemstvo is a hotbed of revolution. It was conveyed in telegraph messages, that the last regular meeting of the Poltava Zemstvo was a stormy one character. However, the authors of the messages prudently remained silent about the reasons for this turbulence. These reasons, judging by the report of the ‹//oltavsky Vљstnik”, deserve

At the end of last year and the beginning of this year, in several densely populated in the villages and municipalities of the Poltava province, the revolutionary movement among the peasant masses manifested themselves in the worst, most inhuman forms. Such are, for example, the famous events in Sorochintsy, where the peasants announced that the people of the republic, they put the police officer in jail and the most inhumane in the best possible way to get rid of the assistant of the police chief.
The Sorochintsy tragedy is also famous mainly for the fact that other villages of the Poltava district.

According to the documentary revelations of Neviandt, it turns out that in everything which led the population itself to a whole series of misfortunes, and the zemstvo to complete collapse,

Among the agronomists, Mr. Petliura, a person who did not receive even completed specialized education. This circumstance did not bother him, however, to serve in the administration as an agronomist, to receive money from the zemstvo, to receive daily, etc., and, under the guise of educating peasants about improving land use vaniya, together with other colleagues and accomplices, to raise shady people to open mumbling and robbery. Thanks to the darkness and debauchery of modern peasant masses, the successes turned out to be the most amazing. The estates were on fire

Did the zemstvo council know about this? - Yes, they knew.

PREFACE.

January 16, 1883, in the Westphalian Mercury (‹si|sh Megkig") an article about the "Jewish Mirror" was published - research- Vanya Justus (Briman), which appeared in the edition of St. Grafli St. Bonifasha.

The editor-in-chief of "Mercury" I. Hoffman was brought in responsibility for the excitation of an offense dangerous to public peace ` not one class of population against another (Christian against Jews).

This "Jewish Mirror trial" was examined on December 10 the same year in the criminal department of Landgericht, in Munster. Against my will, I was invited together with the local Jewish community.

the meaning is that Jehovah showed Moses the whole depth of the Torah, as equally and all the subtleties of the teachings of the lawyers (rabbis) and in general everything that which will ever be prescribed by the rabbis 1).

2. According to the Talmud, the law—in all its volume—is written.

written on only one side, then its size would be 4020 cubits. - And how big is the world? Only one span, because Isaiah XI, 12 says: “Who has measured the heavens with a span?” One span is equal to half elbow. Therefore, the whole world is the size of half a cubit square, and the scroll of laws would take up 40 to 20 square cubits.

From this it is clear that the scroll would be 3,200 times larger than the

When, after the destruction of Jerusalem, the Jews dispersed throughout there are numerous other interpretations of the Shulchan Aruch.

In the preface to the commentary written by the Gaon, Rabbi Hirsch Eisenstadt in 5617 (1857) to Eben ha-etzer,
it says:

“By ineffable mercy, the Lord appeared from the holy his dwelling, from heaven, upon his people. He saw that in only very few of the later generations are worthy, with knowledge and with reason, to draw living water from the highest source.

And He honored His mercy, and “the Lord became a Gosif” 1) and covered him with an abundance of wisdom and prudence, and poured out on he provided for and took care of everything; so that he would enlighten their eyes and prepared a meal for them, so that it would be good for them and to their sons in the ages. And behind us draws Moses, our teacher—Moses Isserles; this, like other others (i.e. Karo), the Lord is equally praised. He spread the tablecloth and sanctified the "on-covered table." Its source is blessed; it is a stream, sparkling from his great book "Darkhe Moshe"; and he wrote inBrnyya notes, enlightened and tested, to all the "four parts".

His name has spread throughout all the lands, and all the Jews follow his hand.
Rabbi Moses Isserles. The face of Moses is equal to the face of the sun."

In the preface of the same author to the separate edition of "ore de'a", published in 5596 (1836), it says:

“The clean table that stands before the Lord is decorated and prepared of blessed memory, Rabbi /Joseph Karo and Rabbi Moses Isserlesom>.

But Shulchan Aruch not only uses extraordinary #0che-volumes, and is also the definitive code of Jewish laws.

1. A code of laws is a book according to which decisions are made

1) i.e. with Tosif Karo, of course.

2) Principles: See Deuteronomy XXV, 29. The Talmud explains this expression as follows: at once: the layer does not see at all; but when he goes in the middle of the day or at night with a candle, then people they see him and save him if he is close to the abyss; but the blind man perishes in the darkness without helpful. (Megillah 24 4).

Legal questions. Questions of this kind, proposed by rabbis to the resolution for specific cases, were published together with answers, on the path of many pillars, in the so-called . "///aal65 utshuboə" (Jews pronounce - "//aales Utshevesv"), i.e. "Questions and answers." Such casuistic questions already exist now there are not hundreds, but thousands. With the advent of the Shulchan Aruch, such ri are invariably based on it. Therefore, that the Shulchan Aruch serves as a generally accepted code, - in this there is no doubt.

2. The Shulchan Aruch is the only collection of laws for our Jews, since they consider it 'legitimate' and commit only the rituals prescribed in the Ulhanz-arukh. For example, a Jewish groom puts an initial ring on his bride's index finger finger with the words: “Look, with this ring you will be with. I am bound by the law of Moses and Israel." Meanwhile, This rite is prescribed not by the Bible, but exclusively by the Shulchan-aruhom (Eben ha-etzer XXUP, 1, Haga).

3. - . -
It is clear from everything stated. In addition, as proof, one could cite any number of direct indications from the same Shulchana.

In Shaaloez utshubo' Ha'am Sferz (author - Rabbi Moses Piber—rabbi in Pressburg, father of the recently deceased parliament-deputy of the Ministry of Justice in Vfn, Rabbi Simon Schreiber, Rabbi of the Krakow%), in the part Iore de'a, we read a negative answer (59) regarding the intention of one rabbi to carry out such a thought as if words of Rma (Rabbi Moses Isserles) in Mount de'a IMP, 18, Haga, They have power only in Poland. To this the author even adds: “I can’t believe that such words come from the mouth of some any teacher who will send a voice to Israel." At the end the same question is said: “This law does not exist us, but is valid only in the lands of Isserles"; here the author also once he notes: “After reading this, I shuddered and thought: could it really be "Could such words have come from the lips of the old teacher?"

Question 61 says: “Who, after MnBniy Isserles, dared-no, don't you want to solve something?

The whole book could be filled with such sayings.

4. All recognized as the present and only set of laws

, Shulchan-arukh, as such, remains in force to this day.

This is already evident from everything said above. It would not be
It is difficult to add many other proofs. And since it is completely clear, then we will refer to only one more thing, but then

2. In the prescriptions of the law, “Jew” is always opposed goy and acum. It is always said: treat a Jew this way, and treat an a"u-mom—that's it; only a Jew is allowed to fabricate this, and a goy is not allowed to, etc.

all of the above, for no one will doubt that Christians belong to the non-Jews. However, for greater precisionsti, we will prove this too.

1. Talmudic-rabbinic Judaism views Christians as like real idolaters:

a) From all the previous, it seems reasonable to draw no conclusion,
so that Jews would want to treat Christians humanely, real idolaters. Divine Founder on-the minds of Christians are not subject to any doubt.

Of the above mentioned prescriptions, the most important one, of course, for us is the ban on delivering water for baptism to the Akums.

The main difference between the texts of the Jewish Mirror and our The revoda consists in “amom slosob and lriem% throwing. Justus says “secret kom", and we translate "year by hand, in his presence". This is the difference is motivated by this: |

The expression... "in his presence" the author of the Shulchan Arukh explains in his commentary to Maimopidov.... "Gilkhoe Akum, paraphrase 9,2>: "In his presence, i.e. personally with him," or when (a gift received) through the messenger, then— in the presence of this latter. On the contrary, Rashi attributes this only to the very same Akum that is given (Er. Aboda Zara 6 6). The first seems a bit far-fetched to me; the motive is obvious serve such a presupposition that the Jew even more Akuma, when you throw his gift in front of him, zBm if again not at all an excuse for a gift. Between the darkness, the center of gravity of the question lies.

Lui will think that he has found a big inaccuracy in the "Jewish Mirror", as it says (towards the end), ‹when the forest punishment threatens "zapiye", meanwhile, as in our translation it means "death penalty".
However, this disagreement cannot be considered particularly important.
In my opinion, beating is considered worse than killing, since the former torments a person takes a long time, but the last can happen in an instant. So the Talmud says about the three youths in the fiery furnace: “If they were beaten, they would bow down to the golden idol." (Veeuboe 33 0. Cf. Torah da'e 232.., Haga, at the end).

To this, note the comments... (Irim. 2). "Likewise,
"It is forbidden to feed him or give him alms."

In this law, first of all, it is not a matter of theoretical “denial” bodies”, but about the real “lawbreaker”. And only then should we proceed to sleep so strictly, whoever breaks the commandment intentionally, and not with the one whoryy dflaet' this for the sake of a cruel joke.

could determine and judge what is documented and what is pre-to present only the author's view. True, due to the fact that various Justus combined texts together and even combined motives with them, the most legalized laws have not yet become unlawful;
due to the fact that they are not translated literally, they must be thrown out
There are quotation marks at the beginning and at the end of the laws of the Mirror.

In the very mode of presentation we, likewise, meet?
we are aware of inaccuracies and exaggerations, but that they are unintentional is a fact.
there seem to be such gaps in Justus's texts that tend not to the detriment, but to the benefit of the Jews. From a thoughtful and attentive i i i, «» did not depend on evil will, but arose solely from a lack calm analysis.

Regardless of this, justice demands that we note what is particularly striking is the fact that the shortcomings of the brochure relate to only to secondary subjects, the most important ones in the Jewish Mirror are accurately translated from the rabbinical original.
Therefore, if, on the one hand, some "laws" differ in some way, wine character and do not have the sharpness that is preferred suggests finding Justus in them, then, on the other hand, so as not tosin before the author, we recognize our duty to categorize-it is logical to say that he could have cited other different "laws", the publication of which would be much more unpleasant for Jews,
some of what is contained in the "Mirror".

Thus, Israel has nothing to complain about when it is said, that in Shulhan-arukh$ duly conclude TB bezchelovchnyya
the decrees that are set out in the ‹]a4depzreze».

We have subjected Dr. Justus's work to severe criticism. And if even one of our Christian brothers could think, that we have crossed the line of what is necessary, we still believe that Justus will not complain about our verdict. He, without any who is in doubt, only wants to bring the truth to light, and therefore does not may not be grateful for what we strive to enlighten the public precisely there, where he is mistaken.

Despite all his severity towards Justus,
Our final conclusion is not very comforting for Israel either.

Already thoroughly and well acquainted with Judaism, the Jew Gen-Rich Ellenberger, writes in his "Historical Guide" (Budapest, 1883, p. 47):

"There are only "Shulhanz-Afukhist Jews."

Whoever said this is obliged to bear all the further consequences.
responsibility.

Be that as it may, here is what is obvious:

Every Shulchan-Aruchist Jew who still has shame in his eyes,
should blush when he sees in the Mirror his own
